

Media Advisory

Connecticut Open Hartford Youth Tennis Clinic presented by Aetna Offers Free Lessons to Local Youth Organizations

Aetna, Yard Goats and Inspire Tennis Association of Middletown to participate and lead free clinic at Dunkin' Donuts Park

WHAT: The Connecticut Open Hartford youth Tennis Clinic presented by Aetna and hosted by the Hartford Yard Goats at Dunkin Donuts Park. The free tennis clinic welcomes local Hartford youth organizations, including Asylum Hill Boys & Girls Club, Hartford Catholic Worker, Parker Memorial Community Center and Community Renewal Team.

The Inspire Tennis Association of Middletown will lead the clinic. The introductory clinic will promote the game of tennis and encourage Hartford youth to participate in tennis.

The mission of the Connecticut Open is to leverage the excitement of world-class tennis to benefit the community and maximize support for women's, youth and military causes in Connecticut.

WHO: Nish Prathab, Tennis Association of Middletown
Anne Worcester, Connecticut Open Tournament Director
Mike Abramson, Assistant General Manager, Yard Goats
More than 100 children from Hartford youth groups

WHEN: Thursday, July 20, 2017. Running order for the day as follows:

10:30 a.m. – Kids arrive at Dunkin' Donuts Park
10:35 a.m. – Introduction and welcome (Concourse behind home plate)
10:45 a.m. – Group photo and photo op
11:00 a.m. – Kids clinic
12:00 p.m. – Kids depart

WHERE: Dunkin' Donuts Park
1214 Main Street, Hartford

CONTACT: Derek Beere
(860) 690-3252 (cell phone)
dbeere@mason23.com

45 Yale Avenue New Haven, CT 06515 203-776-7331

ctopen.org